Anger

Satwik Sambannavar [BE] 1st year

India a historical country which had a Gurukul based education system. In one such Gurukul there lived a guru named Vasudev, who was a great saint as well as a great teacher in the city of Varnasi. He used to educate hundred's of prince in his Gurukul. One fine day he encountered a prince quarrelling with others so the guru inspected the situation and came to know that the prince was quite short tempered. The next day the guru called the prince and asked him to hit a nail in the wall everytime he was angry and to remove a nail every single time he had controlled his anger. As said the prince started following as the guru asked him to do and the very first day the prince had pierced a lot of nails on the wall, there was no difference. For about a week later the number of nail seen on the wall were very less.

After a couple of days when the prince had learned to control his anger he started to remove the nails one by one. All of this was monitored by the guru. One fine day the guru sees that there were no nails on the wall at all on that day the guru called the prince and showed him the wall with no nails on it but then the guru shows him the marks the nails had left on the wall and tells his words of wisdom" even though you have controlled your anger your anger has left a mark on the walls see these marks as on the people whom you have hurt with your anger and tells him to do the following things.

1. Choose your words wisely, your words can never be taken back.
2. Do not respond in anger, a person always tends to take wrong decisions in anger.
3. Always look for all the perspectives of a particular incident and then respond.

MBA Territory

Afreen Jamadar [MBA] 2nd year

*Just ask for it. The world has an abundance of it..

You are the gem of a person, just Believe in it....*

We Spent hours solving one question of correlation, The stress we carried the day before the examination, It got me some numbers as reputation over regression. Right from the competition to the preparation, I still call it a deadly combination. The journey of masters of business administration. How can I forget two years in JCE MBA family, I'm truly honoured to articulate my gratuity. First few days were spent in finding relativity. Everybody chose their bench mates, as a priority, I did the same with the price of durability. I left one door open to attain some level of maturity.

I did my master's with a new territory. From the last to the first bencher, was only satisfactory. College days started with lots of creativity. So happy to be part of the JCE MBA family...

Simplicity is the unique policy. It is not notified anywhere on the board of the directory.

One, two, three, the floor full of energy. Everyone are appreciated with equality and dignity. They trained our minds to adapt, unity in JCE MBA family. I adore all the faculty for standing by my side in the difficulty.

To Cherish all the memories later as an alumni , I want to take this moment to thank you for believing in me. All my heart to the exquisite journey in the Jain college of engineering Belagavi.

Music is the strongest form of Magic

Diya B [ECE] 1st year

Music is a part of all our lives, from when we are growing up to when we are old. Our life would have been totally empty and different without music. It defines cultures and reflects the society and the individual within it. "MUSIC IS OUR ALL-TIME FRIEND".....no one knows why music has such a great power on our emotions. It not only has great power on our emotions, but has a pleasant sound from a combination of melodies, harmony, instruments and vocals that energize us.

Music is undoubtedly a great way of healing the pain and makes us forget about unpleasant and disturbing thoughts by taking us in the world of music...

By hearing music, we can relax both the body and the mind at the same time, it helps us get rid of all unwanted thoughts, anxieties, and stress from our lives. Hence, we can say that it is a great medicine for healing the wounds of our minds.

WHERE WORDS FAIL...MUSIC SPEAKS..!

Travel:En-route to Memories

Magur Yadawatti [ECE] 3rd year

"Life is a Journey from birth to death, It's just that we don't realize that it's a Journey" Life is pretty unpredictable, anything is bound to happen at any given point of time in our lives. In life not everything goes as we planned, the god or the universe has their own plans. Through travel we are exposed to our fears, joys ,more importantly we make memories!

I would like to quote Pankaj Tripathi at this juncture "Mujhe lagta hai na baarvi(12th) ke baad har ek student ko yeh Desh ghoomna chahiye,bohot sasta hai iss desh mein ghoomna aur desh ko ghoomne ki yaatra aapko kuch se kuch bana sakta hai,Mein bahot ghoomaan hoon!" Pankaj Tripathi is a Bollywood actor who is lauded for his acting. Who rose to fame through the Mirzapur Web series.

There are a lot of things to do while travelling like skydiving, bungee jumping, trekking, kayaking, paragliding and many more. Majority of the above activities gives you that Adrenaline rush which further powers up you to live more!

I would like to recommend a book called "Bruised Passports" written by Savi Munjal and Vid Munjal, both of them are Content Creators in the domain of travel.

If you want to start travelling the world but don't know where exactly to start then this book got you covered.The book is written in a strategic manner for travelling ,it also delves into their adventurous journeys around the world. I am going to quote an incident from the book where they lived in Bali city of Indonesia for almost a year.Inorder to experience the local culture, local lives of the people, local festivals celebrated around there. The authors also emphasize that travel is not just about staying in the hotels for a few days and packing up your bags to leave but it's more about exploring people and their culture and enjoying the journey. Finally I would like to end this article with a quote of mine

"Travel teaches you a lot about life, there are a lot of ups and downs in life ,potholes for you to slowdown, tight turns for you to bend and as your moral duty you have take care of others genuinely out of love in this small journey and enjoy all the small moments of life !"

So go travel the world, a beautiful journey awaits you.
